

[Moore, Augustus C.]

Death of an Old Resident

Augustus C. Moore, one of Buffalo's oldest and most respected citizens, died yesterday, aged 84. He was born in Onondaga county and came here in 1830, where, by prudent investment in real estate, he acquired a fortune. Mr. Moore was a liberal donor to many public and charitable institutions, and was one of the leading members of the Universalist church. He leaves a widow and a daughter. Funeral from 427 Elk street Monday at 3 P.M.

Buffalo Evening News, Buffalo NY, Sat. 18 Aug 1883

Transcribed on 8 Oct 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY