GUY MOORE DIES FROM INJURIES

Guy G. Moore of Fayette, a former resident of Newark, died at a Syracuse Hospital Tuesday evening at 7:15 from injuries received at 8:30 the same morning in a collision of cars at Manlius, his car running into the one ahead. One leg was crushed and the other leg and one arm fractured.

Mr. Moore was in the employ of the R. S. & E. Trolley line for several year[s] and lived on Colton Avenue and will be greatly missed for his genial manner.

He is survived by his wife and two sons, Willie and Leon and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore of North Main street, this village.

The funeral was held at his parents' home on North Main street, Thursday afternoon, Rev. Nellie Mann Opdale [Universalist] officiating. The New York Central Hose Company, of which Mr. Moore was a member, attended the funeral in a body.
