ADELMAR¹ G. MOREY

Schuyler Lake—Adelman G. Morey, 72, a lifelong resident of Schuyler Lake, died in Bassett Hospital, Cooperstown, July 31, 1940, where he was taken three weeks ago. He was well known in Otsego County where he has been an expert cabinet maker and carpenter for years.

Due to poor health he has been unable to do heavy work for some time, but worked until a few weeks ago.

He was born in the Town of Exeter, a son of Smith and Arzella Veber Morey. He was married Jan. 28, 191 to Grace Engell, Springfield.

She survives with one son, Harry, of Iliion; three daughters: Mrs. Lynn [Anita] Pett, Little Falls; Mrs. William [Vera] Bennett, Richfield Springs, and Mrs. Gerald Tuller, Hartwick; a sister, Mrs. Florence Page, South New Berlin; one grandson, Bruce Bennett, and two cousins, Mrs. Lowe [Inez Pratt] Kinney, Hartwick, and Leon Morey, Rome.

He was a member of Schuyler Lake Tent of Maccabees. For the past four years he had been foreman of the Shurkatch Fishing Tackle Co. of Richfield Springs. Before that he was bridge foreman of the Otsego County Department of Highways and foreman of the Brady Lumber Company, Cooperstown.

The funeral will be conducted from the home at 2 p.m. tomorrow by the Rev. Charles Kramer. Burial will be in the family plot in the village cemetery.

Schuyler Lake
Funeral of Adelman G. Morey

The funeral of Adelman G. Morey, well known and highly respected citizen of this village was very largely attended. The funeral was held from the Morey home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Reverend Charles Kramer [Universalist] of Cooperstown, former pastor and personal friend of the family, officiated, coming 300 miles to do so, from Reading, Pa., where he was vacationing with relatives, as it was a request of Mr. Morey.

The bearers were Lynn Pett, William Bennett, Gerald Tuller and Kenneth Engell. The floral tributes were many and beautiful; among them besides the family pieces and pieces from friends and neighbors, were pieces from Otsego County Highway Department, Shurkatch Factory, Arbutus Chapter, O.E.S., Richfield Springs, Putnam Creamery and Trim Room Ilion.

The following relatives attended the funeral: Mrs. Florence Page, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morey of New Berlin, Leon Morey and daughter of Rome, Don Lidell of South Edmeston, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe [Inez] Kinney and daughter, Mrs. Mabel Jarvis and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tuller of Hartwick, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Pett [and] Orville Pett of Little Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morey, Ilion, Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett of Richfield Springs. Other friends were present from Herkimer, Mohawk, Cooperstown, Warren, West Exeter, Utica, West Winfield, Garrattsville, Johnstown, Ilion and Rome.

Burial was made in the village cemetery. Sympathy of hosts of friends is extended the bereaved family.
