

[Moyer, Katherine Snell]

MRS. MOYER DIES, AGE 91

Dolgeville—Mrs. Katherine Moyer, 91, widow of Edward Moyer, lifelong resident of this area, died Dec. 8, 1951 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Myron Ogden, 19 Slawson St., after a long illness.

She was born in Ingham's Mills, N. Y., Apr. 27, 1860, a daughter of the late Lyman and Eliza Eakers Snell. She was a member of the Universalist Church and of the Clara Barton Chapter in which she was active until a year ago. Mrs. Moyer's marriage took place in 1878 in the yellow church in the Town of Manheim. She was a woman of rare personality and had a wide circle of friends whom she acquired during her long span of life.

Besides the daughter with whom she lived, Mrs. Moyer leaves another daughter, Mrs. Arthur Halstead, Cortland; four grandchildren, Mrs. William Curtis, Cortland; Mrs. Wendell Young, Sydney; Mrs. Kenneth Hollister, Springfield, Mass.; and Miss Irene Ogden, Dolgeville; and three great grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 2 tomorrow afternoon from the Ogden residence, 19 Slawson St., with the Rev. Gale Bascombe of the Universalist Church officiating, assisted by the Rev. C. A. Molton, retired Universalist pastor. Interment will be in Ingham's Mills Cemetery.
