

[Muncy, Myron J.]

Death of Myron J. Muncy

Myron J. Muncy, aged 73 years, a life-long resident of Cortland county, died last Friday at his home at 115 N. Main street, Cortland, following a long period of ill health. Funeral services were held at the home on Monday afternoon and burial was made in the Cortland Rural cemetery.

Mr. Muncy was born in the town of Cuyler on April 26, 1849, the son of Albert and Prudence Ann Muncy and was one of a family of five children, two brothers of whom survive.

The deceased was united in marriage with Miss Addie Burdick, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Burdick of the town of Cuyler, on February 21, 1872. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents on Burdick Hill, the Rev. Joshua Clark, pastor of the S. D. B. church of Cuyler, being the officiating clergyman. The golden wedding anniversary of the couple was fittingly observed with a family dinner and reunion at their home on February 21st, 1922.

Mr. Muncy was a member of the Universalist church.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Addie Muncy, he leaves three children, Francis Muncy of Syracuse, Mrs. H.L. Chaplin of Cortland and Miss E. Marguerite Muncy of Mount Vernon, N.Y. He also leaves two brothers, William Muncy, who resides west of Homer, and L.E. Muncy of Syracuse; also four grandchildren and two great granddaughters.
