

[Nash, Amelia]

CHASEVILLE.

—After an illness of several weeks resulting from a shock [a stroke], Mrs. Amelia Nash passed away last Saturday afternoon. Her funeral was held at her late home on Monday at 2 p.m. and largely attended [well-attended] by relatives and friends. Mrs. Nash was a consistent member of the Universalist church at Ellisburg, the pastor of which, Rev. Mr. Robinson, spoke words of comfort to those present and paid a tender tribute to the fine Christian character of this dear woman. A large number of the Mannsville grange, to which she belonged for many years, were in attendance and presented their burial service and said "Farewell" to a worthy sister. She will be greatly missed in her home, where the husband and only daughter and little grandson are left without her loving counsel and cheerful companionship, as well as in the community, where she was always ready with kind words and willing hands to do for others. She was laid at rest amid a profusion of beautiful flowers in Ellisburg cemetery.

Jefferson County Journal, Adams NY, Wed. 4 Oct 1911

Transcribed on 11 Mar 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY