

[Nelson, Frances Arvilla Webster]

Mrs. Frances Webster Nelson

Mrs. Frances Webster Nelson, widow of Frederick A. Nelson, died yesterday evening after a lengthy illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. K. Brown, 718 Charlotte street. Mrs. Nelson was born in the town of Throope, near Auburn, a daughter of Charles I. and Arvilla Webster. She had lived with her daughter in this city for 13 years. Besides her daughter she is survived by three sisters in Auburn, Mrs. Helen Ocobock, Mrs. Mary Gervis and Miss Louise Webster; two brothers in Throope, Hiram Webster and Jeremiah B. Webster. Two grandchildren also survive. Mrs. Webster was a member of the Universalist Church and of the various societies connected with it.
