

[Nichol, Mary Bain]

FUNERAL OF MRS. NICOL<sup>1</sup>

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Nicol was held from her late home, 29 Hoffman street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Arnold S. Yantis, pastor of the First Universalist church, officiating. Mrs. Nicol was a woman of many sterling qualities and possessed a large number of friends who will greatly miss her. She was 69 years of age, had always been very active until about three months ago when she was taken ill, and since that time she has been gradually failing in health. She was a member of the Universalist church, and is survived by her husband, James Nicol, and four brothers, George of Iowa, James, David and William Bain of this city, who were the bearers. Interment was made in North street cemetery.

Auburn Citizen, Auburn NY, Thu. 5 Sep 1907

Transcribed on 16 Jan 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY

---

<sup>1</sup> The name Nicol is spelled incorrectly in this obituary, per her name and her husband's name on their markers in the North Street Cemetery. It should be Nichol.