

[Nichols, Jenett]

DEATHS.

In Gaines, Orleans county, on the 1st inst. [May], Miss JENETT NICHOLS, in the 26th year of her age. Mild, amiable and intelligent, this young lady was peculiarly endeared to all who knew her. She was a well informed, consistent, and practical believer in the Gospel of impartial grace and salvation. Her faith, and hope, grew stronger and brighter as health declined and life gradually wore away under the influence of that dreadful disease, pulmonary consumption, and her last moments seemed to be her happiest ones, for she expired praising God for his boundless grace and goodness. She was the fourth and last child which had been spared to comfort and bless a widowed mother's disconsolate heart. But that mother is richly sustained by the same sure and steadfast hope which blessed the life and early death of her lovely Jenett. May God's blessing comfort all who mourn. The funeral was attended in the Presbyterian church in Gaines, on the 3d inst., and a discourse delivered by the writer, to a large circle of relatives and affectionate friends.
