

[Nichols, Nellie Stone]

PITTSFORD NEWS
MRS. SEYMOUR NICHOLS

Mrs. Nellie Stone Nichols, wife of Seymour Nichols, died Friday at the family residence in Rochester, after an illness of one week of pneumonia. She was the younger daughter of the late Draper and Susan E. Miles Stone and was born December 17, 1875 at the Stone homestead, three miles east of this village. Most of her life was spent here, but the family moved to Rochester five years ago.

Besides her husband she leaves one daughter, Helen E. Nichols; four sons, Murray T., Jesse E., Sidney and Byron D. Nichols; also a sister, Mrs. May Nichols of Rochester, widow of William Nichols of Pittsford.

Rev. A.[Arthur] W. Grose, pastor of the Universalist church of Rochester, officiated at the funeral which was held Sunday afternoon at the undertaking parlors of Royal M. Newcomb, Pittsford. Interment was in the family lot, Pittsford village cemetery.
