

[Nichoson, Annie Bassett]

Mrs. Edward Nichoson

On Monday, February 2, near sunset, Mrs. Edward W. Nichoson passed away at her home on the Ridge Road after an illness of nearly two weeks.

Mrs. Nichoson was the youngest of ten children of the late William R. [and Olive Munger] Bassett. Born in Kendall, she spent her early life there. After her marriage to Edward W. Nichoson they made their home in Rochester until within the last few years, when they returned to the Nichoson homestead on the Ridge Road.

She had always retained her youthful vivacity and interest in young people. She was primarily a homemaker. She was a lover of flowers and spent many happy hours with her roses.

She is survived by her husband, Edward W. Nichoson, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held from the home on Wednesday afternoon February 4, at four o'clock, Rev. Lewis W. Robinson, pastor of the Pullman Memorial [Universalist] Church of Albion, officiating. Burial in Sandy Creek Cemetery.
