

[Norton, Solomon A.]

SOLOMON A. NORTON

Solomon A. Norton, 78, died of pneumonia on Thursday at his home, 2149 Seventh avenue. He was born at Fort Plain, N.Y. About twenty years ago he came to this city. He is survived by his son, Clarence J., examiner in the State Insurance Department.

The Sun, New York NY, Sat. 10 Apr 1915

Fort Plain, April 10.—The remains of Solomon A. Norton, aged 80 years, who died at his home in New York of pneumonia were brought to this village this afternoon and the funeral held at the Catherine Nellis Memorial chapel at 4 o'clock. Mr. Norton was a former resident of Fort Plain and for many years was engaged in the crockery and grocery business. He was an ardent Republican in politics and was a member of the Universalist church. While a resident of this village, Mr. Norton always took an active interest in politics. He was well known by the older residents of this village. He is survived by one son, Clarence J. Norton, of New York, one brother, D.O. Norton, and a sister, Mrs. Garry Surnear, both of this village.

Evening Recorder, Amsterdam NY, Sat. 10 Apr 1915

SOLOMON A. NORTON

The funeral of Solomon A. Norton, who died at his home in New York on Thursday, was held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Catherine Nellis Memorial chapel in Fort Plain, the Rev. Frank Moulton, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. Mr. Norton was born March 13, 1837, and was 78 years of age. In 1891 he went to New York, where he conducted a produce market, associated with Reuben Zoller. Later he became interested in the dairy business as New York manager for the Standard Hutt(?) Company of Oswego. He is survived by one son, Clarence J. Norton of New York; two grandsons, Earl J. Norton and Clarence G. Norton; one brother, D.O. Norton, and Mrs. Garry Surnear of Fort Plain. The body was accompanied from New York by his son, Clarence J. Norton, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Norton.

Herald-Dispatch, Utica NY, Mon 12 Apr 1915