DEATH CLAIMS GEORGE NOYES
Well Known Resident of Salisbury Center Passes Away

DOLGEVILLE—Having suffered a stroke of paralysis about ten days ago, death came to George E. Noyes, Sr., a well known resident of Salisbury Center at his home there Monday. He was born in June, 1850, in Clay, Onondaga County. At the age of 21 he married Louise Kline, with whom he went to Nebraska, later to Illinois and in 1898 came to this vicinity to live here. Shortly after celebrating their 55th wedding anniversary in 1926 his wife died. Mr. Noyes was a farmer but retired about five years ago. He was well read and a staunch Republican.

He is survived by one son, George Jr., one daughter, Lucinda Noyes, and a grandson, Jackson Wood Noyes, all of Salisbury Center. The funeral will be held Wednesday, Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton, of the Universalist church of this village, officiating, with interment in Dolgeville.
