

[Nye, Frances Rebecca Waite]

Mrs. Ira Nye

Mrs. Frances Rebecca Nye, wife of Ira Nye of Alexander[,], died Monday night at her home in that village after a forty-eight hours' illness with bronchial pneumonia.

Five years ago she suffered a severe shock of paralysis [a stroke] and had been in feeble health since that time.

Mrs. Nye was 77 years of age, having been born April 29, 1839. She was a daughter of Zena and Rebecca Waite of Darien and resided there until her marriage to Ira Nye December 14, 1864. She had resided in Michigan and was a resident of Corfu for fifteen years, locating in Alexander five years ago. Besides her husband she leaves one son Carl and a sister, Mrs. H. L. Sherrick of Ionia, Mich.

Funeral services were held at 12 o'clock today at the family home and burial took place in Corfu.

Attica News, Attica NY, Thu. 31 Jan 1918

Alexander

The funeral of Mrs. Ira Nye was held at her late home last Thursday, Rev. Harry Wright [Universalist] of Rochester, officiating. The bearers were: Charles Zwetsch, Byram Moulton, Darwin Hurd and Andrew Harrington. Those who accompanied the remains to Corfu where the interment was made, were Mrs. Nye and son Carl, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Stanard, and Earl Kidder. They were entertained [accommodated] at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vandebogart, at Corfu.

The Times, Batavia NY, Sat. 9 Feb 1918