

[Olmstead, Stella Louisa]

Northville

Stella Olmstead Expires at Home

Miss Stella Louise Olmstead died at 5 yesterday afternoon at her home in the Town of Northampton. She had been ill the last year.

Born in Potsdam, Nov. 23, 1891, daughter of the late Harry and Nellie Gleason Olmstead, she resided in the Town of Northampton the last 40 years.

She was graduated from the former Potsdam Normal School and taught in the Utica public school system until 1918. She worked for many years in glove firms in Mayfield.

She attended the Unitarian Universalist Society in Canton for many years.

Survivors are her two brothers, John D. Olmstead of Poughkeepsie and Frank Olmstead of West Parishville; two sisters, Mrs. Morrell Lewis of Poughkeepsie and Mrs. John Fear of Boyne, Mich.; also several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Leader-Herald, Gloverstown NY, Mon. 18 May 1964

Transcribed on 18 Jul 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY