REMINGTON OLMSTED

LE ROY—A memorial service for Remington Olmsted, 79, a native of Le Roy, and a former resident of Buffalo, will be held in Machpelah Cemetery Chapel in Le Roy at 2:30 p.m. Saturday. Rev. Paul N. Carnes, minister of the Unitarian-Universalist Church, Buffalo, will officiate.

Mr. Olmsted, who was an investment broker for many years, died in Pasadena, Calif., Friday, Oct. 13, 1961. He was one of six sons of the late John B. Olmsted of Buffalo, former public service commissioner, and Clara Morgan Olmsted. His uncle, the late Allen S. Olmsted, was the founder of Allen's Foot-Ease in Le Roy.

Surviving Mr. Olmsted are a daughter, Mrs. William A. Fowler of Pasadena; two sons, Remington Olmsted Jr. of Rome, Italy, and Samuel F. Olmsted of Honolulu, HI; two brothers, Harold L. Olmsted of Springville, N.Y., and Allen S. Olmsted II of Rose Valley, Pa.; also two grandchildren.
