

[Ostrander, John]

JOHN OSTRANDER

The death of John Ostrander only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Ostrander, occurred at his home in Church Street at six o'clock Friday morning, February 9th after an illness of about two months. The funeral was held at the Ostrander home at two o'clock Monday afternoon, the Rev. L. [Lewis] H. Robinson of Albion, New York, a former Universalist church pastor here, officiating. Interment was made in the family plot in the Springfield Center Cemetery.

John Ostrander was born in the town of Springfield on April 19th, 1899, the son of Charles B. and Ida Heusen Ostrander. Most of his life was spent in this village. After attending Richfield Springs High School he became associated with his father in conducting the business of the C. B. Ostrander Motor Company, having charge of the Cooperstown branch of the business several years.

He had a wide acquaintance and many warm friends. The Rev. Mr. Robinson speaking at the funeral spoke of the sweet and lovable disposition possess by John Ostrander. This drew many to him and these are deeply hurt by his passing.

He is survived by his parents; one sister, Mrs. Howard Beadle of Watertown; two grandparents, Mrs. John Ostrander of Springfield Center and Henry Huesen of Richfield Springs; a nephew, Robert Beadle of Watertown, several aunts, Mrs. Fred Smith of Springfield Center; Mrs. Fred Quaif of Cooperstown, Mrs. Fitch of Ilion and Mrs. Ramm of West Virginia.

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 15 Feb 1934