

[Pearl, Ella Marena]

MISS ELLA M. PEARL DIES IN CLINTON

Miss Ella Marena Pearl died yesterday, Oct. 7, 1934, at her home, 55 College Street, Clinton. She had been ill for three months.

Miss Pearl was born in Clinton, Feb. 23, 1856, a daughter of the late Ralph and Esther Pearl. She received her education at the White Seminary of this place and taught for a time in two Clinton schools. Later she entered the New York [?] School for Nurses and graduated, doing private nursing for several years before returning to Clinton.

She was a member of the former Universalist Church of Clinton. Surviving are one sister, Miss Jennie A. Pearl of Clinton, and several nieces and nephews.

Observer-Dispatch, Utica NY, Mon. 8 Oct 1934

Transcribed on 5 Feb 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY