

[Pearl, Jennie A.]

Miss Jennie Pearl Dies at Her Home Here Tuesday

Miss Jennie A. Pearl, last surviving member of the Ralph and Esther Elizabeth Blair Pearl family, died at her home on College street Tuesday, October 1.

She is survived by two cousins, Milford Blair of Clinton and Dayton Blair of Los Angeles, Calif.; two nieces, Mrs. William J. [Minerva Lamphear] Metz, Central Square, N.Y., and Mrs. Clinton [Ida Lamphear] Moulton of Dolgeville; two nephews, Blair D. Lamphear and Leonard P. Lamphear of Rome; and seven grandnieces and nephews, Ida E. Meta of Boston, Mass., Margaret E. Metz, Burlington, Vt., William D. Metz of the University of Wisconsin, Mary R. Metz, Enosburg Falls, Vt., Harriet P. Metz, St. Lawrence University [in Canton, NY], Paul F. Metz of Central Square, and John DeWitt Lamphear of St. Lawrence University.

Miss Pearl was a life-long Universalist, attending the church in Utica when possible. At one time a pupil in Cottage Seminary, she took a great interest in the school's alumnae association and had served a brief time as secretary.

Her life was one of sacrifice for those about her, and always her home was hospitably open to her relatives and friends. She will be keenly missed by all who are numbered among her acquaintances.

The funeral was held this (Thursday) afternoon and was conducted by the Rev. [Clinton] A. Moulton and Rev. William Metz. Bearers were Milford Blair, Henry Turnock, Blair Lamphear, Leonard Lamphear, John Lamphear, and Paul Metz. Interment was in Sunset Hill Cemetery.

Clinton Courier, Clinton NY, Thu. 3 Oct 1940

Transcribed on 8 Apr 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY