

[Peck, Aristine Bingham]

Deaths.

In Rochester, May 19, of consumption, Mrs. ARISTINE BINGHAM PECK, aged 39 years. She was a true woman, because she was a faithful wife and a devoted mother. Her character was as irreproachable as she was beloved by hosts of friends. Her faith in Christ was so strong that it sustained her through a painful sickness, and gave her sweet peace in death. The consolations of the Gospel were administered to her husband [Matthew Peck], mother [Mary Bingham], brother [Frederick N.] and sisters Cornelia (Willis S.) Sawens, Mary J. Bingham and Emily P. Bingham], by Brs. [Asa] Saxe and [George] Montgomery. May God comfort them, and shield the two children [Mary and Emily] from whom death has parted her.

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Sat. 10 Aug 1861
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 8 Apr 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY