

[Per Lee, Julia]

MISS JULIA PER LEE

McLean, Feb. 1—The funeral of Miss Julia Per Lee was held at 2 p.m. yesterday at the Universalist church, Rev. Percy Clark officiating. Interment was made at McLean cemetery.

Miss Per Lee's death occurred Monday evening at her home at McLean. She had been in ill health two or three years. She was born at North Norwich, Nov. 2, 1842, the daughter of Edmund and Mary Per Lee. Of the family of eight children she is survived by two brothers, Fred J. Per Lee and Edmund Per Lee of McLean.

Her parents moved to McLean when she was a child and practically all of her life was passed here, where she was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a member of the Universalist church of McLean.
