

[Percey, Amanda Louisa Harmon]

AMANDA LOUISA PERCEY

Mrs. Amanda Louisa Percey, wife of Henry Percey, died Saturday at her home in the town of Phelps, aged 80 years. Mrs. Percey was born in Phelps and lived there until her marriage in 1863 to Mr. Percey. Since then the family lived for many years on the Percy farm in Marbletown, but for the past several years they have lived north of Phelps.

Mrs. Percey was a woman greatly respected by her friends, and greatly beloved by her family. She had been ill for several months.

She is survived by a husband and two children, Mrs. Charles Gardner and Mrs. Charles E. Leggett; also a stepson, Sanford W. Percey, and several grandchildren.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at half-past two, Rev. Dr. Hayes, of the Universalist church, officiating.

Arcadian Weekly Gazette, Newark NY, Wed. 14 May 1902

Transcribed on 13 Aug 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY