MRS. LYDIA PINDAR DIES IN DOLGEVILLE

DOLGEVILLE—Mrs. Lydia Pindar, 71, died very suddenly at her home in this village yesterday morning about 2 following an attack of heart trouble. She had been in poor health for a time, but was about her home Wednesday. She was taken suddenly ill during the night and passed away a short time later.

Mrs. Pindar was born on December 28, 1860 at Newville, N. Y., the daughter of William and Martha Walter Mister. She was married to Frank Pindar in Little Falls in November, 1895. They took up their residence in this village where they have since made their home. She was a member of the Universalist church and the Ladies' Aid society and took an active part in church work.

Besides her husband the survivors are one daughter, Mrs. James Lynch, and one son, Oscar Pindar, of Dolgeville; one sister, Mrs. Ada Munk of Dolgeville.

Funeral services will be held at the home Friday evening. Rev. Z [should be C: Clinton] A. Moulton, pastor of the Universalist church, will officiate. Interment will be made in the family plot on the Linlithgo cemetery on the Hudson river.
