

[Porter, Lizzie A. Ellison]

MRS. LIZZIE A. PORTER IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

Funeral services for Mrs. Lizzie A. Porter of Poughkeepsie and former local resident, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 at the Walrath & Bushouer funeral home, Rev. Fred L. Decker, D.D., pastor of the First Methodist church, will officiate. Interment will be made in the family plot in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Porter, 77, widow of George W. Porter, died at 2 Saturday morning at the home of her son, Stanley E. Porter in Poughkeepsie. Death was caused by heart trouble.

Mrs. Porter was born in Ludlow, Vt., March 25, 1858, the daughter of Joseph and Lavinia Ellison and was the youngest and last of a family of eight children. Her early life was spent in her early state.

After her marriage to Mr. Porter, of Northville, they resided in Hudson for many years. In 1904, they moved to Gloversville and Mrs. Porter resided here until 1930. Since that time she had resided with her son. Her life had been an active one, and she had been engaged in practical nursing for several years in this city. She was Universalist by faith, a member of the First Universalist church in this city until its dissolution several years ago.

The survivors, besides her son, are several nieces and nephews residing in Vermont, Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Morning Herald, Gloversville NY, Mon. 21 Oct 1935

Transcribed on 17 Jul 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY