

[Potter, Franc Loomis]

OBITUARY NOTES.

The death of Mrs. Fred N. Potter occurred yesterday morning at her home in McLennan avenue, after an illness of a little more than a week. Death was due to typhoid pneumonia.

Mrs. Potter was one of the active members of the First Universalist church and, having lived nearly all of her life in the southern part of the city, was one of its best known residents.

Besides her husband and father [Addison J. Loomis] mother [Caroline S. Loomis], Mrs. Potter is survived by a daughter Helen, aged 6, and a son Edward, aged 3 years. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Evening Telegram, Syracuse NY, Tue. 31 Jan 1899

Obituary Notes

The funeral of Mrs. Fred N. Potter, whose death occurred early in the week, was held at her late home in McLennan avenue yesterday afternoon. A large number of friends and relatives attended. The services were conducted by the Rev. F. [Frederick] W. Betts, pastor of the First Universalist church, of which the deceased was an active member. He referred in his remarks to the loss which the two infant children suffer by reason of the early death of their mother, and the great bereavement also which the husband suffers. Burial was made in Oakwood cemetery.

Evening Telegram, Syracuse NY, Fri.3 Feb 1899