

[Powell, Eunice]

DEATHS.

In Victor, on the 15th ult., EUNICE POWELL, consort James Powell, aged 60 years. The deceased, according to a verdict of a jury of inquest, in a state of mental derangement, terminated her existence by suicide, and was found suspended by a handkerchief on the morning of the 16th. She had for some weeks previous been laboring under severe indisposition, and had through life sustained an unblemished reputation. A very large concourse of people assembled on the Sabbath, the 16th ult., at the Universalist church, where the funeral was attended and a discourse delivered by the writer from Ezek. xxxvii:3. May God in his infinite mercy abundantly bless all who have under this extraordinary calamity been called to mourn, and especially remember the aged companion and the sorrowing children of the deceased.
