

[Prescott, Sarah Hooper]

Reverend Alonzo D. Case, of All Souls Universalist church, officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Hooper Prescott, at 190 Western avenue, yesterday afternoon. The funeral services was [sic] private with only immediate relatives and friends present. The sermon of the clergyman was addressed to the living and his theme was the inbred instinctive hope of immortality, God's best gift to humanity, and the certainty that it was not implanted there for naught. In his prayer he commended the bereaved ones to the care of Him who assuages all sorrow and holds forth the expectation of a happy reunion beyond the grave. The body was taken to the receiving vault in Rural cemetery. The bearers were: Austin Liecny of Schenectady, [and] J. C. E. Scott, William H. Brainerd, E. C. Cuyler, M. C. Hutchins, H. W. Smith of Albany.

The Argus, Albany NY, Sun. 15 Dec 1901

Transcribed on 6 Apr 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY