

[Preston, Lyman]

Lyman Preston

Holley, Apr. 10.—Lyman Preston, a lifelong resident of the village of Clarendon, died at his home in that place last evening. Mr. Preston had been in the meat market business in Clarendon for about 35 years and was one of its best known residents. He leaves his wife, Estella E.; two daughters, Mrs. J. S. Partridge of Holley and Miss Jennie Preston of Clarendon; three sisters, Mrs. Lewis Brackett of Clarendon, and Mrs. A. C. Merrill and Mrs. Mary Sharpstein of Harbor Springs, Mich. The funeral will be held from the house Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Lewis Robinson, pastor of the Universalist Church, will officiate.
