

[Price, Manley J.]

Deaths.

Manley J. Price died at his home in this village on Saturday morning last. He had been in failing health for about four years, and during the past three months, he had been almost helpless. The deceased was born in the town of Hopewell 51 years ago, in the same house that his father and grandfather were born in. Mr. Price came to this village with his parents when he was but three years old, and has since resided here. He was married to Miss Mary Smith, who survives him, thirty-one years ago last September. He is also survived by one sister, Miss Alice J. Price, of Rochester. During the past twenty-six years, the deceased had been a faithful employe[e] in the Kellogg livery stable. The funeral services were held at the house on Monday afternoon and were conducted by the Rev. J. J. [Jay Jenkins] Brayton [Universalist]. The interment was made in our village cemetery.
