

[Quackenbush, Alice Foltz]

MRS. ALICE QUACKENBUSH

Mrs. Alice Quackenbush, for many years a resident of this village, passed on to the higher life, Oct. 31. The funeral was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Jackson, Mon. at 1 p.m. The officiating minister was the Rev. Harriet E. Druley of the Universalist church. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery.

Mrs. Quackenbush, with her 71 years of age, was a woman of youthful spirit. She has been confined to the house for the past two years but her cheery heart did not complain. In [the] short two weeks of confinement to her bed this spirit was with her all the time.

As Miss Alice Foltz, she married George B. Quackenbush 53 years ago. To them were born a son Cecil, who lives in Doraville, N.Y., and a daughter Lorena, now Mrs. George Jackson of Nunda. Since her husband's death, Mrs. Quackenbush had been making her home with her daughter. These, with other relatives and friends, remain to cherish the memory of a loving heart.

The Nunda News, Nunda NY, Fri. 6 Nov 1925

Transcribed on 25 Nov 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY