

[Quested, Sarah A. Granger]

OBITUARY

Mrs. Edward Quested died at her late home in Portageville, Feb. 23, 1930, after several weeks' illness.

Sarah A. Granger was born in Wiscoy, Oct. 4, 1862. On Jan. 29, 1885, she was married to Edward H. Quested of Portageville, where they have since resided. Two children, a girl and boy were born to them. In 1905, she became a member of the Universalist church in that place.

She was a good, kind neighbor, loving wife and mother and will be greatly missed by all who knew her. She leaves an aged husband, one son, Howard Quested of Buffalo; one daughter, Mrs. Charles Wallace, six grandsons, two grand daughters, all of Castile; one brother, Bert Granger of Silver Springs; one sister, Mrs. Mary Smith of Portageville; several nieces and nephews.

Rev. Hahn of the Baptist church offered comforting words. She was laid to rest amid beautiful flowers in the Portageville cemetery.

Friends and relatives who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Merney Raynor, Mr. and Mrs. James Dick, Mrs. George Grim, Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith, Walter Smith, Rossberg; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Elwell, Mrs. Bernice VanOstrand of Nunda; Mrs. Rose Hoppock, Mrs. Lynn Stroud, East Koy; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bigelow, Byron Bigelow, Warsaw; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Quested, Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace and family, William Wallace, Jr., Castile; Mr. Bert Granger, son Frank and daughter Helen, Silver Springs.
