ISAAC RADLEY; DROVE STAGE

Stratford—Isaac Radley, 80, town clerk from 1930-34, died yesterday in Herkimer Memorial Hospital.

He was born in the Town of Stratford and in the early 1900's drove the stage coach between Dolgeville and Stratford. He had been employed by the Daniel Green Shoe Company for 23 years and 17 years ago he went to work for the Helterline Lumber Co.

He married Clara Edick in 1907 in Little Falls. She died in 1956.

Mr. Radley was a member of the Universalist Church, Salisbury Center, the Stratford Cemetery Association and was a charter member of the East Canada Fish and Game Club.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. J. Homer (Louise) Denno, Stratford, and Mrs. John (Alice) Matis, East Herkimer; a son Glen, Stratford; and two brothers, Henry and Morris, both of Little Falls.

The funeral will be at 2 Thursday from his home with the Rev. Albert Niles of the Salisbury Center Universalist Church officiating. Burial will be in Stratford Cemetery.
