

[Fuller, Luther]

DEATHS.

In Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 16, Mrs. JULIA C. RALL, aged 38. On the night of Sept. 19, D. R. RALL, aged 40; WALTER, aged 13; IRVING, aged 7, and JOHN, aged 4; the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Rall.—These all died by Cholera. Thus, in the space of four days, an entire family, with the exception of an infant, was swept into the grave.—Very worthy people were the parents and bright were the children. Esteemed and regretted, they have departed from the living. They form a happy group in heaven.
