

[Randall, George B.]

GEORGE B. RANDALL

George B. Randall, 89, one of the oldest residents of Schuyler Lake, died at his home Wednesday afternoon of this week, following several years of failing health.

Mr. Randall was born at Clayville July 1, 1862, son of Delos and Sarah (Ambrose) Randall. He came to this village when he was ten years old. He married Minnie Flansburg, March 31, 1886.

He was a councilman for the Town of Exeter at the time of his death, was a member of the Schuyler Lake Lodge, F&AM, of which he was a past master, and for many years, marshal of the lodge. He was also a member of the Universalist church.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Harry A. Randall of Troy; three grandchildren, Gerald H. and Robert A. Randall and Mrs. William Greenwood, all of Troy.

Funeral will be a 2 p.m. Saturday in Schuyler Lake Universalist church, with the Rev. Stanley Stall, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Schuyler Lake cemetery. The Masons will conduct services.
