

[Randall, Sally]

DEATHS.

At Darien, Genesee county, October 3d, Mrs. SALLY RANDALL, consort of Elias Randall, aged 37 years. Also, on November 10, following, Albertus J. Randall, son of Elias and Sally Randall, aged 9 years.

Thus has our beloved brother in the Gospel of reconciliation been called to endure the severest trials that flesh is heir to. In the death of sister Randall, her husband has lost an amiable wife—her surviving children an affectionate and tender mother—the Universalist church at Alexander one of its most exemplary members, and society at large the useful and kind friend. She died as she had lived, the sincere Christian, full of hope for a glorious immortality for all the world. Her funeral was attended by the writer of this, and a discourse delivered from Luke ii:29-32. The funeral of the child was also attended by the writer, and a discourse delivered from 2 Samuel xiv:14.
