

[Randolph, Clifford]

CRASH FATAL TO NATIVE OF CANANDAIGUA

Automobile accidents yesterday caused the death of a Canandaigua a native and injuries to two Orleans County girls... The dead man is Clifford Randolph, 23, killed yesterday when a car being driven by Norman P. Fladeland, 22, of Grand Forks, N. D., crashed into a bridge 20 miles north of Grand Forks, according to an Associated Press dispatch. Fladeland was reported injured seriously.

Car Victim Started Course In Medicine

Canandaigua—Clifford Randolph, 23, native of Canandaigua, killed in an automobile accident near Grand Forks, N. D., yesterday, was the son of Mrs. Floyd Ferrin and was born here May 5, 1916. After being graduated from Canandaigua Academy in 1934, he entered the University of North Dakota for a medical course. Mr. and Mrs. Ferrin had planned to leave Canandaigua this week on a motor trip to Grand Forks for a surprise visit to the young man.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Tue. 22 Aug 1939

DEATHS.

RANDOLPH—Suddenly, at Grand Fork, N.D., Clifford Randolph. Survived by his mother Irene Ferrin.

Funeral services from the home of Floyd Ferrin at 2:30 and at the Universalist Church in Bristol at 3 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 27, Rev. Harry Wright officiating. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Arrangements by John F. Burton.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Fri. 25 Aug 1939