

[Ransom, Charity M. Brown]

In East Henrietta, Monroe county, at her father's residence, August 18th, Mrs. Charity M., wife of Geo. Ransom of Rochester, and eldest sister of Br. N. [Rev. Nelson] Brown, aged 30 years. Her illness was short but severe, and [one] which, in her conscious moments, she bore with resignation. She was formerly a member of the Baptist Communion, but for ten or more years she had been a devoted and consistent Universalist, respected by her neighbors of other sects. May the gospel in its fulness comfort the heart of her bereaved companion—her parents and mourning relatives. Her funeral was attended in Henrietta. Br. G. W. [Rev. George Washington] Montgomery officiated on the solemn occasion.

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, 4 Sep 1846
(a Universalist publication)

Transcribed on 22 Aug 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY