

[Rathbun Grace Caughey]

GRACE CAUGHEY RATHBUN

Grace Caughey Rathbun, 25, wife of Harry V. Rathbun, died early Sunday morning after an illness of but one week, at her home on Railroad street.

Mrs. Rathbun was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Caughey and had always lived in Tully. Her mother died when Mrs. Rathbun was but nine years old and at an early age the responsibility of looking after her younger brothers and sister became hers.

On February 23d, 1916 she was united in marriage with Mr. Rathbun and for two years the pair occupied the Robert Smith farm, removing to Tully last fall, where Mr. Rathbun engaged in business.

The funeral services were held from the late home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. F. T. [Frederick W.] Betts of the First Universalist church of Syracuse officiating. Interment at Tully Village Cemetery. Elmer Caughey, Willard Caughey, Louis Clay and Ernest Squires acted as pallbearers.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Rathbun is survived by a son Francis; her father, Frank C. Caughey; two brothers Frank J. and Robert S., also a sister Aria M.

Mrs. Rathbun was held in high esteem by a multitude of friends and acquaintances who deeply sympathize with the young husband in his great grief.

Tully Times, Tully NY, Fri. 28 Mar 1919