WILLIAM C. READ

Little Falls—William C. Read died at his home, W. Main St., yesterday. He was stricken with embolism about a month ago, followed by pneumonia, which caused his death.

Mr. Read was born in London, May 1, 1867, son of William and Sarah Read. He came to Little Falls about 60 years ago. In 1890 he married Katherine Foley of this city. He was a member of the Universalist Church.

For 12 years he was employed as a butcher by the late Jacob Zoller, and (28?) years he was connected with the Armour & Company branch as a shipping clerk and salesman. Later for a few years he conducted a market on Second St.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, William and James, Little Falls; two daughters, Mrs. Veronica Callister, Little Falls, and Mrs. Tracey Warner, Ilion; seven grandchildren; and three sisters living in London.

The funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday from the home, with the Rev. Howard Gilman, pastor, St. Paul's Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be made in Fairview Cemetery.
