

[Rector, Katherine M. Henry]

A Sudden Death

Katherine M. Henry, widow of the late William T. Rector of Brown Hill, this town, was found dead at 4 o'clock Monday morning. She was lying in front of the bed partially prepared for retiring, and had died suddenly probably from heart disease from which she had suffered. Her age was 65.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. O. S. Windnagle of Prattsburg; one son, Floyd of this town; and one adopted son, Wm. of Hornell. She was a sister of the late Mrs. Mayette Hill of this place.

The funeral was held this afternoon at the Universalist church, Rev. H. P. [Herbert Philbrook] Morrell of Buffalo, conducting the services. Interment in Maple View cemetery.
