MRS. JAMES REGAN DIES AT CAMDEN AFTER OPERATION

Bridgewater, Dec. 24.—The funeral of Mrs. James Regan was held from her late home Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. Dewitt Lamphear officiating. Mrs. Regan was of a kind and happy disposition and had many friends who will greatly miss her. She was a member and willing helper of the Universalist Society of Bridgewater.

She had a very serious operation several weeks ago from which she never recovered. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Crinan of Camden where for the last three months she had been lovingly cared for. Besides her husband she leaves two sons and three daughters and several grandchildren.
