

[Reitter, Mary Blanchard]

MARY B. REITTER...

Mrs. Mary Blanchard Reitter, wife of the late Dr. Geo. Stiles Reitter of Montclair, New Jersey, died at the Orange Memorial Hospital, Orange, New Jersey on July 23rd, 1954. A life long Universalist, and a member of an old Universalist family, Mrs. Reitter was a member of the Church of the Divine Paternity [Fourth Universalist] in New York City. As a child, she remembered worshipping at the old Fifth avenue edifice during the pastorate of Dr. Charles Henry Eaton.

At the time of her death, Mrs. Reitter was president of the Chapin Home for the Aged and Infirm in Jamaica, an institution founded in 1869 by Mrs. Edwin H. Chapin. She had served loyally and capably in this capacity for the past six years and under her leadership the Home has expanded its program and improved its facilities.

Funeral services, conducted by Dr. Benjamin B. Hersey, were held in the Church of the Divine Paternity, Monday afternoon, July 26th.
