

[Rice, Joseph]

Cramers Corners

At the home of his daughter, Mrs. Chester [Margaret] Fort, occurred the death of Joseph Rice, Saturday night, aged 84 years. Mr. Rice spent most of his life in this section. He was born in Germany and came here when quite young and settled in Newville and followed the occupation of a farmer for a number of years. At the time when Mr. Rice quit farming 17 years ago he made his home with the daughter above mentioned. He is survived by three sons, William and George Rice of Newville and Charles of Watertown, also another daughter, Mrs. Ira [Cora] Casler of Newville. The funeral, which was private, was held at his late home Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. R. R. Hadley [Universalist] of Little Falls officiating, and interment made in the Newville cemetery.
