

[Richardson, Charlotte Dodge]

CITY WOMAN DIES AT 86

Mrs. Charlotte Dodge Richardson, 86, wife of C. Clinton Richardson, 119 Park Ave., died at 7:45 this morning in the House of the Good Samaritan, where she was admitted Dec. 12. She had been in reasonably good health and active until she entered the hospital.

The funeral will be Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Cleveland-McCallen Funeral Home with Rev. Weston A. Stevens, pastor of All Souls Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Brookside Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Surviving besides her husband, are a son, John C., 341 Keyes Ave., four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Richardson was born in Brainard, Minn., May 18, 1883, a daughter of John D. and Margaret Wilson Dodge. As a young woman, before her marriage, she was employed by the Telephone Co.

On June 22, 1921, she was married in All Souls Church to Mr. Richardson by the late Rev. Dr. Harry Westbrook Reed, then pastor. Except for a short time when they lived in Montoursville, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Richardson had spent their married life in the city.

Mr. Richardson was employed by the New York Central Railroad as a young man, serving as claim agent at one time. He was then engaged in accounting, with Farwell & Rhines Milling Co.; was a partner in the Bandbox Dry Cleaners; and for some years before his retirement in 1966, was accountant at Coty Machine Co.

Mrs. Richardson was a member of All Souls Church, served as treasurer several years of the Benevolent Club, and was a former member of the House of the Good Samaritan Auxiliary.
