

[Richardson, Philo]

Death at Hallsport.

Philo Richardson, who has been suffering from heart disease the past eight months, died at his home at Hallsport, Friday evening. The funeral services were held at the residence Sunday, at 2 o'clock, Rev. Alice Bradley [Universalist] officiating. Interment in the Hallsport cemetery.

Mr. Richardson was born in Livingston county, January 20, 1826, and was therefore nearly 77 years of age. He is survived by his wife, five sons and two daughters, Mrs. A. W. [Clara, wife of Alvin W.] Barney and Mrs. Iru Brown of this village. He was a prosperous farmer and a good neighbor and friend, and in his death the community loses an excellent citizen.
