

[Rifenburgh, Crawford Jr.]

DIED OF PNEUMONIA

Crawford Rifenburgh, Jr., died in this city on Saturday evening of pneumonia, after an illness of about a week. He had been in the employ of William H. Parker, coal dealer, and was well known about the city. He was at one time a member of Co. F, National Guard, of this city. His funeral took place this afternoon from Ensign & Bates undertaking parlors, the Rev. Mr. [H. L.] Rickard of the Universalist church officiating. He is survived by his father, a brother and two sisters.

Evening Register, Hudson NY, Mon. 10 Nov 1913

Transcribed on 23 Jan 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY