

[Roberts, Cynthia Korleen Adams]

MRS. CHARLES D. ROBERTS

Mrs. Cynthia Korleen Adams Roberts, wife of Charles D. Roberts of Buffalo, died in her home on February 25 after a protracted illness. She was born in Watertown on February 11, 1872 and was a descendant of Governor William Bradford of Massachusetts of the Mayflower period and of Captain Tilley Richardson of Revolutionary War fame. She was educated in the schools of Watertown and held prominent secretarial positions in Washington, D. C.

She and Mr. Roberts were members of the choir of All Souls Church [Universalist] in Watertown where their romance began. Their marriage took place in Washington on February 17, 1917. Previously, Mrs. Roberts was employed by the Agricultural Insurance Company of Watertown. They began their married life in Buffalo where Mr. Roberts has been employed in the advertising department of Pratt & Lambert, Inc.

Mrs. Roberts served for twelve years as recording secretary of the Women's Aid Society of the First Universalist Church in Buffalo and was always an active and loyal member of this church. She is survived by her husband and several nephews. The Funeral service was conducted in the Buffalo Cremation Chapel on February 28 by the Rev. Robert E. Davis, pastor of the Universalist Church in Buffalo.

Empire State Universalist, Cortland NY, April 1948
[a publication of the NY State Convention of Universalists]

Transcribed on 19 Jun 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY