Clara Weaver Robinson

The sad death of Mrs. Nelson L. Robinson occurred at her University Avenue home Monday. She had been a sufferer for years and her death comes as a relief though it falls with crushing sadness on relatives and friends.

She was born in St. Louis, Mo., March 10th, 1854, the daughter of Rev. Geo. S. Weaver, D.D., and Sarah J. Kendall Weaver. In the fall of 1872 she came to Canton and entered St. Lawrence University in the class of '76, graduating in June 1876, Judge L. [Ledyard] P. Hale, Dr. Chas. K. Gaines, Dr. J. C. Lee, Mrs. L. A. Doolittle and Miss Inez A. Jones being members of her class.

[On] April 6th, 1882, she was joined in wedlock with Nelson L. Robinson at Canton, N.Y., and that union was blessed with three children: Ethel, now preceptress of Brownville High School, Marjory, a member of the class of 1908 <sup>[sic]</sup>, St. Lawrence, and Ernest Leffert, a student in the High School.

She was a cultured, lovable woman, a good mother, wife and home maker, and will be sadly missed by the family and a wide circle of friends who have sincere sympathy in their affliction.

The funeral will take place at 2:30 Thursday, Rev. G. M. Gerrish [Universalist] officiating.
