

[Robinson, Edna Ball]

Mrs. Edna Robinson of Ilion, 84, Dies

ILION—Services for Mrs. Edna J. Robison [Robinson], 84, of 139 West St., who died Saturday in Herkimer Memorial Hospital after a long illness were conducted at 2 p.m. today from the Whiter-Hendrix Funeral Home here by the Rev. Stanley C. Stall, Herkimer, Universalist pastor, with burial in Armory Hill Cemetery [Cemetery].

She was born in the town of Columbia, a daughter of Ira E. and Martha Zoller Ball, and was married to Smith W. Robinson, who died in 1952. Before moving to Ilion in 1953, she was a resident of Richfield Springs and Cedarville.

She attended the Morgan St. School here and was a member of the Herkimer Universalist Church.

Surviving are a nephew, Franklin Ball, Mohawk, and several cousins.

Evening Telegram, Herkimer NY, Mon. 12 Jun 1961

Transcribed on 29 Jan 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY