E. M. ROBINSON CLAIMED BY DEATH

Elizabeth M. Robinson, born in Nunda Nov. 5, 1880, passed away at the Nunda Community Nursing Home July 29, 1967.

She attended school and graduated in 1898 from the Nunda high school. She taught school first in Oakland, then in the Nunda high school, also in the Asbury Park, New Jersey city school and in the New York city public schools, also in the Rochester City Normal school and the John Marshall high school in Rochester from which she retired, spending the remaining years in Nunda.

She was graduated from the Chicago Kindergarten college, also the Columbia Teachers college in New York city.

She was always interested in all school and civic affairs, especially the Nunda Community Nursing Home where she had been a patient for some time. She was a member of the former Universalist church in Nunda, also a member of the Senior Citizens. She had been a member of the Nunda Business and Professional Women's Club and took an active part in its activities until her health failed. She was a long time member of the Board of Directors of the Nursing Home and seldom missed a meeting.

She leaves a brother Max and sister-in-law Adela of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, also several nieces and nephews. The service was held Tuesday, Aug. 1, in the Duryea Funeral Home, Rev. L. P. VanSlyke officiating. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery, Nunda.

Honorary pallbearer was Walter B. Sanders and pallbearers were Paul Lippincott, Ralph Asmus, Lawrence Ryan, Paul Byrnes, H. F. McMaster and Thomas Stamp.

Friends who wish may contribute to the memorial fund of the Nunda Community Nursing Home.
